

CARBON CREDIT PURCHASE AND OFFSET PROCESS

Search for balance between CO<sub>2</sub> emissions produced by urban development and remedial measures to offset pollution

A residential, commercial or industrial developer wanting to obtain a connection permit will have to pay monetary compensation corresponding to $0.32/m<sup>2</sup> of the surface area of the developed land. In this way, the developer will be contributing toward reimbursement of the amount advanced by Ville de Laval for the purchase of carbon credits.

